HERNDON

The farmers are all very busy raking and burning stalks and plowing. Some few have planted a small amount of corn. The town is almost in the condition that our Salt Springs correspondent found Malta Bend sometime since, though there has been no sheriff or deputy here to cause same.

E. T. Hinkle closed his school at Green Mount last Friday. He went home Monday. He will teach the winter school at the same place commencing sometime in September.

Dr. Walker and W. M. Taylor seem to be improving at present writing. Hope we may be able to see them both out again soon.

Misses Jessie Evans and Marie Clark, of Marshall, were visiting friends in the burg and vicinity Friday.

Miss Taylor, of Koping, with friends, called on Mrs. Huff Saturday. The former is a sister of the late.

A. M. Henley closed his school at Glenwood Friday. He will teach a month on subscription.

Will Weller and Mr. Matthews, of Sweet Springs, were in the burg Monday on business.

T. J. Morris and wife, J. T. Aulger, J. W. Johnson, and R. N. Taylor visited the county seat last week.

J. F. Wheeler and W. H. Fenwick were among Monday's visitors to the county seat.

Mrs. Montague, of Marshall, is visiting at J. H. Craddock's north of here. T. T. Claycomb and wife went to Sweet Springs Saturday.

S. L. Pyle went to Salt Springs Monday on legal business.

Besides the above, we have a store full of nearly everything, and don't forget that this store is NEVER undersold if we know it!
